

Sponsorship Proposal - 100 Selections Book

We are a young museum founded and incorporated in 2013 as a 501(c)3 Public Benefit Corporation. Art museums play a constructive role in society, by enhancing the quality of life in the community by fostering artistic expression and appreciation that crosses cultural boundaries. This connects us to each other through community bonds. The goal of the IEMA to become the arts destination in the Inland Empire; free to the public; where art, education and connections come alive.

We are looking for a number of sponsors to fund our first book and to help grow the museum. We now have a collection that has over 800 pieces of art and is still growing. 100 Selections is planned to be a 112 page hard-bound book, featuring 100 pieces of art from our collection with a press run of 1,000 copies. We will be going to print early September 2018.

While the museums main mission is to cultivate local talent our collection includes art from the 16th Century to the present and from 15 other countries. With our collection we also have the "Native American Art & Craft Collection", and the "Mask Collection" which features masks from around the world. Our "Young Eyes Gallery" introduces kids to art and creativity.

We are presently looking for a larger building to permanently house the museum. All money raised above the cost of the book will go towards the further growth of the museum. With your help we will be able to publish 100 Selections and the museum more accessible to the public. To see the complete book go to www.iearts.org/book.htm.
